Last Update: 03.09.2010
INAT FAQ v3.3 Link Updated

AdeptiCon reserves the right to modify, update, clarify, or change event rules in the interest of making AdeptiCon the best event possible. No fundamental rules changes will be made after 2/1/2010.

BASIC RULES

- This tournament is for players 16 years and under looking to test their skills against other players of a similar age.
- Armies will consist of 1,500 points in size.
- The Warhammer 40,000 5th Edition Rules will be used.
- The AdeptiCon INAT FAQ will be used (Updated 03.09.10).
- All 40K Championships army lists must follow the 40K Youngbloods section of the AdeptiCon 2010 40K Army List rules.
- Forge World/Imperial Armor units are not allowed in the 40K Youngbloods Tournament; however players may still use their Forge World models to represent a unit from their codex.
- The 'What You See Is What You Get' (WYSIWYG) rule is in effect. That means all units must be easily identifiable as the particular codex choice they represent and that any and all weapons/options taken for a unit must be clearly represented on the model(s).
- All players must bring FIVE copies of your army list!
- You must provide access to your own rules (which includes the actual Codex used for your army), dice, templates, pen/pencil, calculator, or anything else you'll need during the course of regular play.
- Parents will be allowed to watch their kids play but will NOT be allowed to help them play the game. This is a game for the Youngbloods only!
- AdeptiCon Tournament Judges' and Officers' rulings are final.
