

SPONSOR SPOTLIGHT: SABOL DESIGNS

Long-time AdeptiCon Sponsor Sabol Designs is well known for their Army Transport line of miniature carrying cases. We recently got a chance to talk to Matt of Sabol Designs to find out about him and his company.

Matt, tell us a bit about yourself

I have a bachelor's degree in art from The Atlanta College of Art. I have been and avid fan of Star Wars and science fiction since childhood. I was always building models as a kid and found 40K in a local game store in 1991. To date, I pursue the hobby on a regular basis. I started Sabol Designs, Inc. in 2000. There was a tremendous need for a customizable figure case so through trial and error, we developed the ARMYTRANSPORT.

Do you play 40K/Fantasy/LotR or any other GW-related product?

I play the following:

40K: Orks, Tyranids, Chaos Space Marines, Chaos Daemons, Necrons, and Imperial Guard.

Fantasy: Goblins

Talisman (I am currently building a 3-D Game Board!)

Tell us a bit about Sabol – how large of a company is it, and tell us a bit about the company's history.

Sabol Designs was started in 2000. We were frustrated with the limited options for managing the storage and protection of our miniatures, and felt that there had to be a better way. The company started in a basement and has expanded to a very busy office and warehouse.

Our original product was the ARMYTRANSPORT, but now we have 7 styles of cases. We have many different size trays and are always working on new ideas.

What are Sabol's best-known products currently?

- 1) ARMYTRANSPORT FIGURE CASE
- 2) ARMYTRANSPORT DIVISION
- 3) ARMYTRANSPORT MOTOR POOL
- 4) ARMYTRANSPORT PLATOON
- 5) ARMYTRANSPORT MARK II
- 6) ARMYTRANSPORT BATTALION

What products does Sabol produce that you wish were better known by the gaming community at large?

Custom terrain and conversions.
We do everything from tiny bitz to 14 foot spaceships!

What do we have to look forward to in the near future from Sabol?

At AdeptiCon, we are introducing at AdeptiCon a new case and trays. THE ARMYTRANSPORT LEGION and LEGIONAIRE'S TRAYS (each tray holds 42 infantry).

How can hobbyists get Sabol products?
