AdeptiCon returns in 2007 to the Chicago-land Schaumburg Marriott on March 30th-April 1st. We've expanded our slate of tournaments to eight, that's right, eight tournaments over the course of the AdeptiCon weekend. In addition to the three Warhammer Fantasy Battles tournaments and the three Warhammer 40K tournaments, this year AdeptiCon adds a Lord of the Rings tournament and a Battlefleet Gothic tournament for your wargaming pleasure.

All our tournaments feature AdeptiCon's challenging, original missions, stunningly themed tables and terrain, and amazing sponsor-donated prize support. AdeptiCon promises to be the event of the year for the Games Workshop hobbyist.

Registration for all of our signature events is now open, and places are going fast, so don't miss out on your chance to test your mettle against some of the finest players from across the nation and the world. Last year, hundreds of gamers took advantage of the opportunity to bring out their best in gameplay, sportsmanship, and painting.

In 2007, AdeptiCon will proudly kick off the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series. Players in five of our tournaments will have the chance to earn points towards recognition as the Games Workshop US Champion. Two Warhammer 40K, two Warhammer Fantasy, and our Lord of the Rings tournaments will all be a part of this nationwide, year-long event. All you have to do to take part in the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series is to show up at AdeptiCon, and make sure that we've got your GW Player ID number (available by calling GW US Direct Services at 1-800-394-GAME).

FRIDAY: 40K GLADIATOR TOURNAMENT

The first rule of the AdeptiCon 40K Gladiator is, "No whining." The second rule of the AdeptiCon 40K Gladiator is "No whining." A favorite of AdeptiCon attendees for years, the 40K Gladiator is your chance to come with 2000 points of your favorite army, where anything goes. Take the Warhound off the display shelf, call in the Thunderhawk, and bring the leanest, meanest army you can think of, because you can bet that other Gladiator competitors will bring their best. While painting and good sportsmanship are essential, your tactical acumen over four games will determine who emerges victorious.

This event is part of the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series.

SATURDAY: 40K NATIONAL TEAM TOURNAMENT

The AdeptiCon 40K National Team Tournament is our largest event, and in fact is one of the largest 40K tournaments in the world. Last year, over 300 people took part in this four-round, one-of-a-kind event. Teams of four compete in all aspects of the hobby: gameplay, painting, sportsmanship, and team theme. This 40K event is truly a team effort: all scoring is by team. If your team of four can rise to the top, you will have truly earned the title of AdeptiCon 40K National Team Tourney Champions.

SUNDAY: 40K CHAMPIONSHIPS

The AdeptiCon 40K Championships provide an AdeptiCon twist on an old classic. Bring an 1850 point army for three rounds of AdeptiCon signature missions, sure to challenge even the most experienced players. Gameplay alone won't win you the day, however, as sportsmanship, painting, army selection, and rules knowledge will all play a part in determining the winner.

This event is part of the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series.

FRIDAY: FANTASY ESCALATION TOURNAMENT

Back by popular demand, the Fantasy Escalation tournament gives each player a chance to field three different armies from the same codex at 1000, 2000, and 3000 points. Here's your chance to bring out two Lords, special characters, and other rarely-seen miniatures. But don't forget that 1/3 of the tournament is in the 1000 point game, where your army may have a much different feel than it would at the 2000 or 3000 point level. Be prepared for anything!

This event is part of the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series.

SATURDAY: FANTASY CHAMPIONSHIPS

This event pits you head to head with folks from across the country and the world. Over four rounds, you will face the cream of the crop of the Fantasy circuit, including many of the top nationally ranked players in the Warhammer Fantasy world. If you can do well here, you can compete anywhere. With our tournament's 2300 point army level, you have the flexibility to move your 6th edition armies and play them in a 7th edition format. Expect the unexpected.

This event is part of the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series.

SUNDAY: FANTASY TEAM TOURNAMENT

The culminating Warhammer Fantasy event of the AdeptiCon weekend, the Fantasy Team Tournament truly showcases the AdeptiCon spirit. Two-person teams compete for distinction and glory through three rounds of play, with army design, painting, sportsmanship, and gameplay combining to create a tournament experience that maintains the core feel of Warhammer Fantasy while developing unique situations that can only be found in the AdeptiCon Warhammer Fantasy Team Tournament.

BATTLEFLEET GOTHIC/LORD OF THE RINGS

FRIDAY: LORD OF THE RINGS TEAM TOURNAMENT

The first-ever Lord of the Rings event at AdeptiCon, the Lord of the Rings Team Tournament will not only feature some great gaming challenges, but will highlight the best non-gaming aspects of the hobby, such as theme, appearance, and sportsmanship. Each team of two will bring two forces, one Good, and one Evil. Using the Legions of Middle Earth supplement, the Lord of the Rings Team Tourney should provide a challenge to both new and experienced Lord of the Rings players. We expect to see some of the most creative and inspiring armies out there, so let your passion for Tolkein's masterworks express themselves in yours.

This event is part of the 2007 Games Workshop US Tournament Series.

SUNDAY: BATTLEFLEET GOTHIC CHAMPIONSHIPS

In the grim darkness of the far future, there is only war...and that war isn't limited to actions on the ground. A new addition to the AdeptiCon lineup, the Battlefleet Gothic Championships will challenge fleet commanders to test themselves against the fiercest competition around. Expect challenging and unique missions, beautifully painted fleets, and some stunning interstellar vistas created by the AdeptiCon Terrain Group for the inaugural run of Battlefleet Gothic at AdeptiCon.
