CROWNE PLAZA HOTEL IN ROSEMONT, IL APRIL 11TH- 13TH, 2008
THE ULTIMATE GAMES WORKSHOP CLUB-RUN EVENT! WWW.ADEPTICON.ORG

A full slate of Warhammer Historical events will join the lineup at AdeptiCon 2008, the ultimate independent club-run event in the Games Workshop Hobby. Every day of the AdeptiCon 2008 weekend will feature Warhammer Historical events for your wargaming pleasure. Demos and tournaments will give both veteran and novice gamers a chance to experience the excitement of the Ancients.

Recreate the battles of ancient Rome, call out your posse, or strive for naval supremacy in our demos of Warhammer Ancient Battles, Legends of the Old West, and the upcoming Legends of the High Seas. Or take to the streets of Prohibition-era Chicago in Legends of the Old West: The Chicago Way. All necessary figures will be provided for these demos, or bring your own models to show off your latest work!

On Saturday in the Warhammer Ancient Battles Singles Tournament, players will bring 2000 point armies to battle it out for supremacy through three rounds of play. Sunday features the Warhammer Ancient Battles Doubles Tournament, where teams of 2 will face off to find out which team will emerge victorious.
